

Student Chapter of the George Wright Society

George Wright Society (GWS) Mission: “The George Wright Society promotes protected area stewardship by bringing practitioners together to share their expertise.”

What is a student chapter of the GWS?

Student chapters bring together like-minded students through the mentorship of professionals and educators on college campuses.

Who should come?

Anyone interested in natural resources

Why you should come:

- Trips to national parks
- Internship & Service project opportunities
- Access to GWS online magazine
- Student discounts to GWS international conference
- Scholarships
- Native participant travel grant program
- Park Break
- Network & connect with professionals/mentors
- Research & graduate school opportunities

Come to the first meeting!

Wed 9/2 – 5:30 pm–

Throckmorton Lobby 1st floor

FOOD and REFRESHMENTS

For more info contact Dr. Skibins (jskibins@ksu.edu) or
Dr. Sharp (ryansharp@ksu.edu)

